From the initial idea to a creative concept...

Developing a project like this is time consuming and for the realization a team of experts is needed. The team of KOS KREBS accepted this challenge. Through the creative play between colors and design the hotel received a unique character and remarkable ambience.

The basic design idea arose from the template of Meissen porcelain, which is manufactured about 30 km from Dresden. A large scale drawing was created, based on the fine flower ornamentation of the porcelain. This drawing was used for wall decorations as well as curtains.
